personal profile

Passionate m.c.r.p. Graduate eager to enhance how we connect with and experience our neighborhoods. Experienced creating and delivering public presentations, developing graphic content across several platforms, and working within a team. Extensive coursework taken in urban redevelopment, zoning, housing affordability, historic preservation, transit-oriented development and sustainability. Very interested in how emerging employment and lifestyle trends might intersect with urban design. You can find examples of my work at natriarch.com, my personal website.
